

NIMUE PROFESSIONAL TREATMENTS

At Nimue Skin Technology, we are dedicated to our four skin health principals of rejuvenation, restoration, protection and anti-oxidation in the form of advanced scientific active ingredients delivered through innovative transdermal delivery systems.

Nimue Skin technology introduces the new skin classification professional Transdermal Solution. An intelligent treatment delivery system for maximum active delivery that is administered by a Nimue Beauty therapist during a Nimue professional treatments.

Available in all 4 of the Nimue Skin classification prescriptions each with different actives designed to improve skin health and address certain skin concerns.

Each TDS has been clinically endorsed with clinically proven results in 14 Days*

80% Increase in skin firmness in 14 days*

Formulated with Perslan Silk Tree Extract which protects and repairs the protein structures of the skin damaged by glycation. Delivering anti-glycation benefits, Improving the visible signs of pre-mature aging.

7/10
People saw improved skin tone in 28 days*

Formulated with ODA and Microencapsulated Vitamin C reduced pigmentation at its source, promoting collagen biosynthesis and the prevention of free radical formation. Leaving skin with a lighter and brighter complexion.

Up to 70% reduction in surface skin lipids*

Formulated with synthetically produced Phytosphingosine applied to boost the skins natural defence, offering anti-microbial and anti-inflammatory properties. Controlling the outbreak of new comedones, reducing the number of Papules and pustules.

96%
Increased hydration in 14 days*

Formulated with Dioxygenated Natural Peptide and Mirabilis Jalapa Extract to help stimulate the synthesis of six major constituents of the skin matrix to rebuild and strengthen the skins dermal barrier for overall improved skin health.